SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT AT RUMFORD FALLS.

A Brief Session--Summary of Proceedings--Adjourned Saturday Afternoon.

Wednesday morning, May 13th, the Supreme Judicial Court, Justice A. H. Spear presiding, opened its session adjourned from Tuesday, when no business was transacted.

The court prayer was made by Rev. Geo. B. Hannaford, and the Clerk of Courts Whitman called the roll, and the jurors responded.

First Jury.
Morrison W. Adams, Hiram; Frank R. Andrews, Woodstock; J. L. Bailey, Andover; E. F. Balch, Mexico; Stanley Blais, Rumford; H. W. Cobb, Rumford; John E. Davenport, Hartford; Clinton Durgin, Dover; Foster Farwell, Bethel; Elsworth E. Gilpatrick, Brownfield; E. Hayes, Oxford; E. E. Howe, Hanover.

Stanley Blais was chosen foreman of the first jury.

Second Jury.
Lydon H. Merrill, Sweden; Emerson March, Dixfield; A. F. Philbrick, Roxbury; C. H. Fido, Waterford; G. W. Richardson, Greenwood; J. H. Rolfe, Rumford; P. C. Russell, Bethel; J. Shaw, Byron; Moses Smart, Fryburg; E. C. Staples, Peru; H. T. Threlk, Canton; A. W. Walker, Paris.

Fred J. Rolfe was made foreman of this jury.

Memorial Service for Elwin H. Gleason.
Wednesday afternoon, May 13th, after Judge Spear had assigned the trial cases in the Supreme Court in session at Rumford Falls, Ralph T. Parker, chairman of the committee having in charge the memorial services in honor of Elwin H. Gleason, late member of the Oxford County bar, addressed the court concerning the action of the committee.

He then spoke of the character of the deceased brother in his relation to the school of hard experience tried and never found wanting in his private or public life.

Mr. Parker then, in behalf of the committee, read resolutions of respect and asked that they be made a part of the court record, and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased brother.

A. J. Stearns addressed the court and explained that Fred R. Dyer of the committee, and a former associate of Mr. Gleason in the legislature, had prepared a memorial tribute for this occasion but had been suddenly called away and had requested the speaker to read the paper.

Mr. Dyer spoke of the legislative career of the deceased brother and called attention to the conscientious, hard and effective work he did for the legislature. His tribute to him as a scholar and an incorruptible legislator was of the highest order, and left no doubt that Mr. Gleason had passed the ordeal of temptation while a member of the House and without wavering came out unpolluted. His hard and faithful work in the legislature was the primary cause of his illness and final death, said Mr. Dyer.

Judge A. E. Stearns then spoke of Mr. Gleason in his business career and gave some reminiscences of his boyhood days, the incidents of which foreshadowed his character as a man. His estimate of Mr. Gleason's character was based upon intimate knowledge of him as a student and later as a partner in the law business. Judge Stearns then paid a fitting tribute to the moral character of his former business associate and when he promised to be a brilliant career the speaker was nearly overcome with emotion and it was with difficulty that he was able to control his voice sufficiently to finish his eloquent testimonial.

Judge Spear then asked if there were any attorneys present who wished to speak.

Mr. John P. Swasey made a few appropriate and appreciative remarks and then Judge Spear closed the services by adding a few well timed remarks and ordering the resolutions to be made a part of the court record, and a copy be sent to the family of the late brother.

Thursday morning the case of H. W. Ranlett vs. C. G. Price et al. was tried. In this case the defendant claimed that goods bought were not weighed on scales that had been tested according to law. The Judge ruled in favor of plaintiff sustaining his action. The defendant entered exceptions and the case goes to the law court.

TENT DEDICATED BY SALVATION ARMY.

Sunday afternoon the Salvation Army tent on the Power Co. lot at Rumford Falls was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

The tent which has a seating capacity of about 200 is near Congress St. and a gate and passageway have been made so that entrance may be made from opposite the E. K. Day Co. store.

The meeting was opened by the Rev. Geo. A. Martin, who made a prayer and also a address. The meeting was in charge of Capt. Dunham. Rev. Har old Hanson made remarks and also Capt. Vincent of the local Corps.

A collection was taken both afternoon and evening. Total amount was $21.00. This goes towards paying for the tent.

EBEN T. BOWERS DEAD.

Edmund K. Bowers was called to the home of his mother in Dorchester, Mass., Tuesday May 19 on account of the fatal illness of his brother Eben T. Bowers, M. D. Dr. Bowers who had been in ill health for some time suffered a shock that caused a fatal termination of the illness Wednesday morning, but a few hours after the arrival of his brother.

The remains were brought to Lewiston, the former home for burial and Saturday they were laid to rest in Riverside cemetery with the Masonic rites. The deceased was 36 years old, a graduate of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and of Tufts Medical College. He had been in practice in the Rock Bay district, Boston for six years. He leaves a mother, two sisters and one brother, Edmund K. Bowers of Rumford Falls.

SAMANTHA ALLEN AT THE COURT OF FAME

At Bethel Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings.

Pleasing and Successful Affair--Many Local Hints.

Since the announcement that Samantha Allen at the Court of Fame was to be given in Bethel, under the auspices of Purity Chapter, O. E. S. on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week, all have been looking forward in anticipation of a rare treat, and those anticipations have been realized.

The hall was well filled Tuesday evening and all were especially pleased with the entertainment and are generous in their expression of appreciation of the commendable efforts of the various persons who participated.

The Goddess of Fame, who was to crown as Queen of Fame the most worthy claimant for that honor, received the historical characters, as shown in the appended cast of characters, each in appropriate costume and gave due consideration to the various claims which each made as to their just right to the honor to be bestowed.

As will be observed some of the world's most noted historical characters sought the honor, but it remained for Samantha Allen, because she had been a good wife to Josiah, who she allowed was no angel any more than are several Bethel men named, to furnish a liberal share of the amusing features in the setting forth of her claim.

Bridge, Topsy, and poor little Partridge also filled many a gasp with their sparkling humor.

It must have been more difficult for the Goddess to make her selection than it sometimes is for our judges in prize speaking contests. It was nation competing with nation, queen with servant, artist with humorist, heroine with musician and poetry with dancing.

Queen Isabella touched a responsive chord in claiming the honor for having given America to the world. No alone did Ponce de Leon show one great life to her credit but rather the spirit of her noble deeds demand the homage of all.

Barbera Freitche caused the patriotic blood to boil in the veins of every American.

But it remained for Columbus, with her torch of liberty to give the light of humanity to the world and the world's great liberator to set Liberty and Education as the foundation of the Republics of the world, and to produce as her attendants, Porto Rico, Hawaii and Cuba.

With the Goddess the claims of Columbus overshadowed all the others and since the crown was not designed as an award for race or proud descent, to Columbus, that magic word which bids all warfare cease and stands for Equality, Humanity, Christianity and Peace, was bestowed the honor and she was bidden to let her grand banner ever wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave.

RECEPTION GIVEN JUSTICE A. M. SPEAR

At Rumford Falls, May 13, in Opera House.

Supreme Court's Second Term The Occasion.

Rumford Falls has not yet gotten over rejoicing because of having been favored with a session of the Supreme Judicial Court once a year, and this term, as they did a year ago, a reception to the presiding justice was held.

A committee composed of the wives of the lawyers had the arrangements in charge, and those who attended the reception were satisfied that the committee left nothing undone to make the occasion one that would red-credit upon Rumford.

The guests were first received in the parlors of the Elks' Club. At a quarter of nine the orchestra on the theatre stage above, began to play, and then the guests in couples filed up the stairs and into the hall, which was tastefully decorated.

As they passed along, Ralph T. Parker and Lucian W. Blanchard presented them to the Honorable Justice A. M. Spear, who with her husband shared the honor of the evening.

There were also in the receiving line, Hon. John P. Swasey and Mrs. Swasey, Hon. W. D. Pettengill and wife, Col. and Mrs. Geo. D. Blais, Judge A. E. Herrie and wife, and Judge and Mrs. A. E. Stearns.

Each guest was presented a carnation as they passed along by Miss Hawley and Master Stearns.

After the formal reception was over the grand march was formed, led by Mr. and Mrs. Lucian W. Blanchard, followed by Ralph T. Parker and Mrs. Spear, and Judge Spear and Mrs. Parker.

The dance program was completed in nine numbers. The band directors were Lucian Blanchard, Alfred Sparks, James McMenamin, Ralph T. Parker, Matthew McCarthy, and Dana Threlk.

The totality manner of Judge Spear and his handsome wife aided in giving the reception an air of dignity befitting the high character of the Supreme Court of Maine, and they will be pleasantly remembered by the people of Rumford, as well the Judge and his wife hold in grateful remembrance the respect shown them by the leading citizens of the place.

FIELD MEET.

Students of Gould's Academy at Riverside Park.

The students of Gould's Academy held a field meet at Riverside Park next Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m. This is the first event of the kind that the students of the Academy have ever given, and it is hoped that a large attendance may be had.

Among the events are the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 1-2 mile run, 1 mile run, standing broad jump, running broad jump, running high jump, pole vault, throwing hammer, etc. etc. There is a large list of prizes which lack of space will not allow us to give, but many of the students will participate in the contests and the occasion will be one of interest and pleasure. The admission will be 25 cents, and Riverside Park is big enough to hold as many thousands of people as may seek attendance, so let us all be there and lend our enthusiasm in behalf of the occasion.

FIRE STATION WILL BE READY FOR OCCUPANCY MIDDLE OF JUNE.

The carpenters have completed their work on the Wigwam at Rumford Falls and as soon as the plastering can be put on and dried it will be ready for the driver of the fire truck to occupy, as planned. The south roof has been raised and three sleeping rooms and a bath have been built on that side.

The Assembly room for the firemen taken up the front of the upstairs floor. On the north side the office is located, and a store room.

The driver's apartment is in the rear on the north side, where he will be very near the stalls.

When completed and ready for occupancy the Wigwam will be as well fitted for a fire station as any town in Maine possesses. V. A. Linnell has done the carpenter work.

Foot Lights--I saw Anna Held last night at 1:30 p. m. on Sunday from the mill where he does an account of a bad cold.

Miss Joe Bentley--I suppose Anna Held is to wear the skirt before talking a talk--Fletcher Stearns.

MEMORIAL DAY

Soldiers' Monument to be Dedicated at Bethel.

Grand Procession--Rumford Falls Band in Attendance.

Memorial Day is close at hand and we wish again to remind all of our readers in Bethel, and adjacent towns of the exercises which are to take place in Bethel on that date.

As stated last week, the Soldiers' Monument recently erected in Bethel will be dedicated on the afternoon of Memorial Day, and it is proposed to make the occasion the one patriotic occasion in Bethel which will be likely to be had during the life of the few remaining members of the Grand Army.

This fact alone ought to be sufficient to quicken the heart of every patriotic heart in this vicinity, and we hereby appeal to each and every one, who have a love for the old flag and who appreciate the fact that the soldier boys who went out from Bethel to offer their services and their blood to preserve their country and sustain the principles of liberty and common manhood, to join us on Memorial Day in the exercises which will be held.

Memorial Sunday.
Unless service will be held at the Congregational church at the regular hour. The Brown Post and the Woman's Relief Corps are requested to meet at their homes at 10 o'clock, from which they will march to the church. The Sons of Veterans are urged to participate in the exercises and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance on the part of the citizens and school children upon the exercises.

The Memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. Wm. C. Curtis, pastor of the Congregational church.

Memorial Day.
There will be enough of interest in Bethel during Memorial Day, not only to keep every one at home but to bring in the people from adjacent towns.

The Rumford Falls Band of twenty-five pieces has been engaged for the entire day. A concert will be given in the forenoon and at 2 o'clock the grand procession will be formed on Church street near Oldfield's Academy.

The procession will be made up of the Grand Army, Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, the school children, citizens, members of the various Fire Companies of Bethel and it is hoped that the Odd Fellows and Masons may also join.

In this connection, we earnestly urge all citizens to join in the procession, and also the Sons of Veterans and citizens, in fact any and all who feel to lend their presence and influence for the cause of patriotism. As suggested, this will be the last time during the life of the Grand Army that there will be a general invitation to the people of Bethel and vicinity to unite in one grand procession in commemoration of the services which they offered to their country in the time of need.

The exercises will march up Church street to Main, around the Commons and down Main to the monument where dedicatory exercises will be held. Later in the afternoon, another band concert will be given and in the evening services will be held in Oldfield Hall.

The band will be in attendance, the school children and the Bethel Chorus will furnish appropriate music, several citizens will make short addresses and the soldiers will hold a general camp fire, at which time all will relate interesting incidents concerning their army life. These exercises will be a breakfast and will prove of interest to one and all. Let the patriotic spirit within each and every one of us bring us into participation in these exercises and may the day be that will linger long in the memory of the boys and girls of Bethel, in whose hearts we hope to inspire by these exercises a spirit of patriotism which shall dominate their lives in years to come.

SAD DEATH AT NORWAY

The community was saddened by the news of the death of Annie Leah Moore, daughter of Samuel and Lillian Moore, which came peacefully May 18th. The fatal disease baffled the physicians, and all treatment failed to stay the progress of the enemy.

Miss Moore was born in Grafton, Ont., March 29, 1890 and moved to Oxford, Me., with her family a few years ago. In 1895 she came to Norway and had won hosts of friends since then. Being musically inclined and possessing a sweet voice, she was often called upon to assist in church and other public exercises. Vocal work was her delight and she labored hard to perfect herself in the profession under the care of Prof. Howard Stevens of Portland. In passing away so early in life, she leaves behind the sweet memory of a cheerful disposition, a pleasant word and a life made happy through communication with the bosom of nature.

The community deeply sympathized with the family in their bereavement. The father and mother, the brothers, Cecil Moore, of Hamilton, Ont., Frank, Frederick, William and Harold of Norway, and the sisters, Mrs. Millie Ryham, of Toronto, and Lena of Norway. Arch Deacon Baymore of Auburn performed the last rites according to the Episcopal form, in Christ church, Saturday morning. The remains were deposited in Oxford and tenderly placed in the family lot. The long list of beautiful flowers contributed testify to the deep sympathy expressed in the hour of sorrow.

FUNERAL OF DENNIS LAFLANTE.

At Rumford Falls, Saturday, occurred the funeral of Dennis Laflante, whose sudden death was announced last week in the CITIZEN as having occurred at Livermore Falls. The body was taken to the Grand View Hotel, of which he was formerly proprietor, and from thence to the St. Jean Baptiste church where the rites of the church were performed. The burial took place at the Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Laflante was well known at Rumford Falls and quite popular. He is survived by a widow and three children.

THE HOME CIRCLE.

Pleasant Reveries—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers
as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Editor's Note.—It is our desire to make this department one of the most interesting and valuable features of the whole paper. To this end we ask the cooperation of our readers. Choice verse and gems of thought will be gladly received. Here are our thanks for anything that our friends have sent or may send.

Home.
We shape ourselves the joy or fear
Of which the coming life is made,
And sit our future's atmosphere
With sunshine or with shade.
The times of the life to be,
We weave with colors all our own,
And in the field of destiny,
We reap as we have sown.

J. G. Whitliff.

Suppose that you and I, my dear,
Just pluck the blossoms as we go;
Just idle down the easy ways
And call the flowers as they blow!
And on the tapers as we plod
Towards the distant light we see,
Suppose we look for that great shore
And help us through the working hours!

I know the letters lean across
The paths we tread to-day,
But if we turn them softly back
And let the truth's sweet melody
I think that life will be worth while,
And by our paths all wet with dew,
Will bloom the fragrant buds of peace.

Why should we stumble o'er the stones
And bruise our feet upon the clod
When on the path is velvet grass
And verdure fashioned by our God?
We let us wander where the way
Is tinged with violet and rose,
And close our eyes to blighting things
That flourish where the thistle grows!

Yesterday now is past forever.
Stand up in a moment which God holds light,
With glad days and sad days, and bad days which never Shall visit us more with their bloom and their light,
Their fallow of sunshine or sorrow
(at night).

Let them go: since we cannot recall
them
Ghosts and shades and echoes alone
Glean in his merry harvest them, forgive
them!
Only the new days are our own
Today is ours and today alone.

Every day is a fresh beginning.
Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain:
In spite of old sorrow and old sting,
And passions forecasted and possible
pain,
Take heart with the day and begin again.

Home (Continued).
The three should be like the day
more beautiful in the evening; or, like the summer, agree with promise; and like the autumn, rich with the golden cheer, where good words and deeds have ripened on the field.

A successful man: "A man who has made a happy home for his wife and children. He matters what he has not done in the way of achieving wealth and honor; if he has done that he is a great success. If he has not done that, and if he has not failed though he be the highest in the land he is a mere pitiful failure. I want to see how many men in a mid-western city, whose character is the sign of a nation that there is no failure which can be left to their families as great as the memory of a happy home."

A person in the prime condition of nature, the eternal soul, changes not shape. Nothing can take the place
The lighted to success has through purpose, and our trouble with us is that we lack purpose, and holding that, lack principle, lack backbone, lack grit. Not having a purpose to live, we have no power to take strong hold of some work and do it. No man can ever win a conspicuous way more than he can win a life of honor and achievement. The tendency is to drift to back with the crowd, to let the current of life carry us whither it will. That is the danger very great too, and the back is very beautiful and pleasant as we glide between things but one from nothing. But the other way, the real treasure which we can take to the land where the current of the crowd and we must row, row hard against the current if we would reach our goal. Let us row and row through this storm and drift.

A Model Wife.
A model wife is the woman who looks after the household, keeps the up everything a desire to do, and not a feeling who has second that is soft answer will turn away wrath;

who keeps her sweetest smiles and most loving words for her husband; who is his confidante in sorrow or in joy, and who does not feel the necessity of explaining her private affairs to the neighborhood; who respects the rights of husband and children, and in return has due regard paid to her;
who knows that the strongest argument in her womanhood, and as she cultivates it; who is sympathetic in joy or in grief, and who finds work for hands to do; who is not made bitter by trouble, but who strengthens and sweetens under it; who tries to cancel the faults of her husband, rather than blazon them forth to an uninterested public; the woman whose life-book has been written on every page who makes a home for a man,
home in a house and in a heart,
a home that he is sure of, a home that is full of love provided over by one whose price is above rubies. She is the model wife.

Wanted—A Boy.

Wanted—A boy. A brave, courageous, manly, helpful boy; one who is not afraid of the truth; one who wears a lion's mane who looks directly one who loves his mother; one who does not know more than his parents; one who has the courage to say "no" and stick to it; one who is willing to begin at the bottom of the ladder and work upward; one who thinks it worthy to make; one who thinks an education is worth striving for; one who is willing to obey his superiors; one who knows his home better than the street;
one who won't cheat in a fair game;
one who won't be a sneak, and do a mean act when unseen; one who won't spend every penny he earns or gets;
one who thinks he should respect himself, and keeps himself in decent appearance; one who won't attack an old man because he is feeble and defenceless; one who won't torture dumb animals; one who won't steal; one who won't swear; one who won't do a dirty act for another boy who is less careless to do his own meanness; one who loves to do right because it is right. Wanted—a boy; a whole-souled, earnest, honorable, square boy.
Where can he be found? Does he live in your neighborhood? Is he a member of your family? Do you know him?

Neatness of Dress at Home.

The importance of neat and tasteful home dressing cannot be over estimated. The nation who appears before the members of the family in a shabby, soiled wrapper and makes the error, if indeed she takes the trouble to make one at all, that "it is so much more comfortable," has little idea of the possible consequences of such a course. Could she but realize that her dress is an evil example to her daughters, and representative of her own soul of life; that her husband and some cannot fail to draw comparisons between her dress and that of the ladies they meet in other homes, and that these comparisons cannot fail to decrease their respect for her, she might be induced to give more attention to her personal appearance.

Not even the burden of care and constant employment can furnish a well reasoned excuse for careless personal habits. For few things are more important to the well-being of a family than an old saying to the effect that an un-tidy mother has disobedient children, and while motherly duties are not done may make the why or wherefore of it, yet there is always a lack of respect and an indifference to the authority of a mother who takes no pride in her personal appearance.

And it is not the mother alone upon whose shoulders rests the burden of responsibility for home neatness and order to dress; the father has his duties to look after as well, and should never fail to insist upon the younger members of the family presenting themselves with well kept heads, clean faces, neatly brushed hair, and orderly dress,
at least at every meal where the family gathers.

When I asked my girl to marry me, she

The Halls.

See the ladies will—the hats—
Stunning hats—
Looming up in battlements and alaring down in halls!
How they flutter, flutter, flutter,
At the corners of the street!
And the eyes who wear 'em utter Words as soft as melted butter
To the friends they chance to meet
As they dash, dash, dash,
In a sort of shiny dash, Till you'll think a flock of blue and green and pink and purple hats
Were the hats, hats, hats, hats,
Hats, hats, hats—
The fearful and the cheerful string of hats!

Ladies.

AN OTHER THING

Everyone in Bethel Has a Right to His Own Opinion.

While everyone has a right to his own opinion, yet it is wise to always consider what others think and profit by it.
Nothing makes life so miserable, or interferes so widely with the usefulness of the average American, as indigestion, and it is well for us to give fair consideration to what others think about the remarkable affliction.
W. R. Beaumont is positive that in 30-40 stomach tablets he has an absolute cure for indigestion and the many disagreeable symptoms that follow this disease, such as distress after eating, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, distention, belching and ac-tiveness.
Their action in solving 30-40s on a sensation to relieve the uneasy feeling it causes, shows plainly their hold on the value of this remedy.

Second Landings.

what?"
Susan: "Mother 'bough. She treated my friend Mr. Jackson, what called me her son-in-law?"
"I thought Mr. Jackson, did she?"
"But what she does. She called me who got 'em married rather soon."

NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS

Timely Warning.

At a trial of the present hydrant system, in South Paris on Friday last, it was found that on Pine street, near the new High School building, the force of the water from the hydrant would throw a stream only as high as the eaves of the building, but in case of a fire on the roof the water would not reach it. With two streams the water would hardly reach the second story windows, and with three streams the force of the water would be so great that it would tear the roof off the building.

This is a bad showing for fire protection, but it is about the same as at the time the Stiles house was burned, then water could not be thrown onto the roof of the house, and at the time the Colby house burned, water was drawn from a hydrant close to the main pipe with two streams the second story could not be reached.

At that time the village from a disastrous fire in each of these cases was the fact that there was hardly any wind and what there was, blew in a favorable direction.

While dallying with this poor protection against fire, the danger of present. Past safety is no guarantee of continued good fortune, if the possibility of better service is passed by unheeded. He that dallyes with danger, eventually gets caught.

South Paris Water System.

The citizens of South Paris interested in obtaining better protection against fire and also an abundant supply of pure spring water for domestic use, listened to an interesting and clear statement of facts as given by the civil engineer who has been engaged as a new water supply into the village, in the informal talk given at the Board of Trade rooms last Friday evening.

Mr. Chase, the engineer, explained the plan as at present suggested, which is to take the water from the reservoir already built on the Cooper Spring Brook and conduct it by means of an iron pipe to a second reservoir nearer the village and 200 feet higher than Market Square, from which pipe and to be laid to Market Square and to be laid to all parts of the village so as to furnish ample fire protection.

The main pipe, from the second reservoir to the square to be a 12 inch pipe, and this would furnish a sufficient force to throw the water in each stream 60 feet high, and continuously without cutting off the supply for domestic use in the houses.

The second reservoir to be 100 feet and 12 feet deep, and covered, this would hold 300,000 gallons of water, for location a site near Hooper's ledge is suggested, and from here the main pipe would be laid to the river there and enter the square by way of Park street. The distance between the two reservoirs would be about two and a half miles, and from the second reservoir to the square, one and a half miles.

Cost of construction $50,000, allowing $5,000 for unexpected contingencies, making the largest estimate $55,000. The size of the pipe from the first to the second reservoir is six inch; from the second to the square, twelve inch; and from the square to the village, eight inch. The other pipe about the village would be eight and six inch, and this would give a protection far superior to the present system.

During the meeting the Engineer in view of these present to ask questions; many questions were asked and a very courteous answer given to all.

There seemed to be a general opinion that the system ought to be established, and that it ought to be put into effect as soon as possible, and the plan should be secured and controlled by the village corporation. A charter and necessary legislation will be required to make this possible, and the present water committee were asked to prepare a plan and enter the plan should be secured and controlled by the village corporation.

The auction sale of live stock at Hotel Andrews stable last week was not a very lively affair. There was not a large crowd present and the bidding was slow, although buyers were present for horses, but few for cattle and horses went slow. Myron W. French, rumble soloist, received a flattering offer and a contract from Al. F. Wheeler's New Model Show, which is an overland circus of high reputation, featuring a strong band and headline acts.

The Norway and Paris Street Railway are improving the whole system. A new track has been placed at the G. A. R. building in South Paris and a crew have been cleaning the road bed and leveling the rails. Open cars are now on for the summer.

Friday as Arthur Day was observed by many citizens, several maps were sent to the school yard by the pupils from the different grades and the High School. The High School enjoyed the day at Gibson's Grove, w. games and a picnic dinner, a trip being made on a steamer "Zanika".

The Grand Opera House visited South Paris and crossed bats with the same grade there, ten innings were played resulting in a victory for Norway, score 10 to 9. It is safe to say that these youngsters were as demonstrative as the crowd to their side, as were the "Oxford Bears" upon Mr. Swasey's return from the Republican convention.

The stalls on the fair grounds are fast filling with horses ready for the annual summer week-out, in anticipation of the fall races.

A TRIBUTE.

Mrs. S. K. Bennett died at her home in Gorham, N. H., May 18th, 1908, aged 82 years.

The angel Death came close and whispered to her: While yet 'twas day: And with no words to those who loved and knew her: She passed away.

For many days we prayed our God to spare her: But no; it could not be: The angel came, in love to safely bear her across death's darksome sea.

The death of this dearly loved woman has brought a weight of sincere sorrow to the many friends here where for many years she was a resident, moving from here some ten years ago to Gorham, N. H., where her two sons, S. S. and H. E. Bennett reside. There she has been the most devoted of homekeepers for her husband, and her younger son was married and lived but a few steps away. When attacked by the disease that proved fatal, the best medical skill in New Hampshire and Maine was procured, but in vain. All that love and the extraordinary skill of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Mrs. Bennett was ever of a resolute, helpful nature and her kindness won her many friends wherever she went, and many hearts beat with tender sympathy for those nearest and dearest to her. She leaves two sons, a daughter-in-law as dear as an own child, and one little granddaughter, a bright star of promise to her always, our sister and two brothers and many other relatives.

The funeral was at the Universalist church, Gorham, N. H., burial at West Bethel, May 17th. A profusion of beautiful flowers were placed about her last resting place as a silent messenger of the loving esteem in which she was held.

And these few simple lines I proffer With heart that's true: What more can I offer As friendships dwindle?

Addie Kendall Mason.

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, cures every ailment in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage.

It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. The ONE PRICE SYSTEM is a necessity. It reduces the friction of business life. It protects the child or person who is not familiar with Values in the selection of things needed. They pay no more than if they were experts in Values. There is no discriminations in regard to friend or stranger.

We have heard much in the past year about Railroads cutting price of transportation to favor a few. But what about the merchant who has as many prices as he has customers? The deeply felt and growing belief in the Brotherhood of Man demands the same treatment to all, discrimination to none.

Safety--Peace--and good business morals demand THE ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

This, the greatest store in Oxford County has always held to the principle as above set forth. The ONE PRICE SYSTEM is its Past, Present and Future Policy.

We Again Remind You That We Are The Dress Goods House of Oxford County.

To Stout Women!

"The shapeless stout woman" is getting scarce. She has found a remedy in the famous Nemo "Self Reducing" Corset.

It "makes over" your figure, giving you a better shape than you ever had, or ever expected to have, and reduces your abdomen so effectively that you can "take in" your skirts at least three or four inches.

There is a Self-Reducing Corset in a model for every type of stout woman—tall and stout, short and stout or just "fat."

312, for tall, stout women $3
320, same with Flatting-Back $3
314, for short, stout women, $3

Every Nemo Corset is made with the Nemo "Triple-Strip Re-enforcement"—bones and steels cannot cut through.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS.

This column is an open column, in which our readers may express their views upon any subject of public interest. In publishing these letters we wish it understood that we do not voice any opinions which may be set forth by anyone. Our opinions will be expressed in our editorial columns, but we give our readers free course in this column to express themselves on any subjects of interest to them and will publish anything not objectionable.

In a recent issue of the Maine Farmer I was a good deal interested in a piece written by some one from Somerset County, also in the reply to the same. Temperance, reprobation, etc. were the subjects being discussed. In this reply the writer says the people must stand by their guns. That is in my opinion just what they are doing. What they have been doing for a long time. What is the outcome? Murder, drunkenness, debauches of every nameable kind, are every day occurrences. Every newspaper received contains detailed accounts of these dreadful happenings, and they are not confined to our large cities and villages. Our once quiet, peaceful, law-abiding people of Oxford County are no longer so. Is there no way to prevent these things? The people are standing by their guns. Our county pays large sums of money each year, on account of these very things. Our State Legislature is for a purpose, but what do laws amount to if they are never enforced?

We have liquor holes in abundance, and drunkenness also; arrests and seizures in some of our nearby villages seem but a passing thing. Parties pulled in today pay a few dollars, let loose, and tomorrow or next day the same thing is gone through with again. This gives employment to a great many people, but it does seem to me that many of these officers have made a mistake in their calling, that they would succeed better with the pick or the shovel, thereby doing away with much of this foreign element that is such a menace to good government. And yet the people are standing by their guns. I think the time has fully come when something more should be done, they should be come alive and not stand as graven images. Bring the gun to the shoulder, take aim and fire, it would indeed be strange, if some were not kicked over but if they were working for a purpose with a determination to get their game, it wouldn't take long to again get on their feet. In the article before mentioned the writer said, the majority of the people of Maine are for temperance. Why then do we not have temperance? Why is this question of reprobation before the people?

Yours for temperance and good government,

A CITIZEN READER.

HOW TO TELL IF YOU HAVE WORMS

THE REMEDY THAT QUICKLY EXPELS THEM

The common symptoms of worms in children are: Irritability, loss of appetite, vomiting, grinding of the teeth during sleep, swelling of the upper lip, hard swollen bowels, griping or colic pains, also convulsions and many other unsatisfactory nervous symptoms. While, if not checked in time, lead on to something more serious.

TOOK DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR AND GOT WELL

DR. TRUE, DEAR SIR:—
For more than three months one of my children has been troubled with worms, vomiting and symptoms of fever nearly every week, together with canker-sores about the nose and mouth. I obtained, about two weeks ago, two bottles of your Elixir, and before the first bottle was exhausted the worms were entirely expelled, and no appearance of his vomiting or fever-pains has ever returned. I really believe that the lives of thousands of children suffering from worms or canker might be saved by a timely and judicious use of your Elixir. Yours truly,
J. L. HAMMETT.

This is only one of hundreds of such testimonials. This marvelous remedy has been made sold by Dr. J. P. True & Co. for many years, and in all that time nothing but words of praise have been heard upon it. This is what Mr. Wing thinks of it.

DR. TRUE, DEAR SIR:—
For the past seven years I have constantly kept a supply of your Elixir in my house, and it never failed to give prompt relief. It has been a great blessing to my children, and unsolicited I give you this tribute of gratitude, hoping the merits of your unrivaled family medicine may be widely known and appreciated. Very respectfully,
CHAS. B. WING.

Even though worms may not be found present, Dr. True's Elixir tones up the stomach and liver, blood and Dr. J. P. True, of Brunswick, thinks of it.
"It is a safe and effective remedy. For worms it has no equal, and is an excellent remedy for canker of the mouth and throat." Dr. True's Elixir is sold by druggists everywhere at 50c, 10c, and 5c per bottle. "Children and Their Diseases," will be sent free by mail on receipt of Dr. J. P. True & Co., Auburn, Me. We have a special treatment for tapeworm. Send for free book.
